4-bedroom family house with an area of 240 m² and a spacious 3000 m² garden is located in the quiet Píla area of Borinka, near the historic Pajštún Castle.

Layout

The house consists of two above-ground floors. The ground floor features an entrance hall, a spacious living area connected to a dining space, a fully equipped kitchen with high-quality appliances, a bathroom with a toilet, a storage room, and a winter garden. Wooden stairs lead from the entrance hall to the upper floor, where there are three bedrooms and a bathroom with bathtub and toilet. Two of the bedrooms are connected by a balcony located above the winter garden, which includes a small gallery.

Equipment

The house is rented partially furnished, with the possibility of additional furnishing upon request. Amenities include an alarm system, landline connection, internet (DSL), satellite and cable TV.

Location

The property is situated in a quiet and romantic location with excellent access to Bratislava. The surrounding area offers beautiful natural scenery, ideal for sports and relaxation. The Stupava stream flows near the house, and a revitalized mill race runs through the property.

Price and additional info

The rental price does not include utilities, which are charged separately based on consumption. A covered parking space for two cars is included. The house is available immediately.
